Notice

2008 Landfarm Facility Operator Training and Certification Schools

The Division of Waste Management's annual Training and Certification Program for Landfarm Facility Operators will be held June 17 and 18, 2008. Classes will be held at the Franklin County Extension Office, located at 101 Lakeview Court in Frankfort, KY.

Objective: The purposes of this program are to promote environmentally sound solid and special waste practices, certify facility operators, and provide training on facility operations. The program contains sessions on: special and solid waste for landfarming, site selection, annual reviews, regulations, site inspections, soil properties, soil and crop management, landfarming management and closure. Upon successful completion of the course, the participant will obtain a 5-year certification. Classes will begin at 8:30 a.m. and end approximately at 4:30 p.m. each day. Daily sign-in is required for class credit, so please arrive on time.

Who must attend: All landfarm facilities in Kentucky by law must have a certified operator. If you were granted interim status, or if your certification expires on or before December 31, 2008, you MUST register to attend this school.

Fees: The fees required for the course are allocated for the expense of the training course instructor, location, and refreshments; provided training manual, supplies, and study guides, and the certification exam. Please send separate payments for each registration, in the form of a check or money order made payable to: Kentucky State Treasurer. Refunds will not be issued, and all payments must be received by the date listed by the fee below:
